REGULATIONS FOR TENTS/CANOPIES/TEMPORARY STRUCTURE

Building permits and Special Event permits are required for the installation of tents/canopies/temporary structures which are used for a commercial use and located on commercial or residential property.

By making application for and accepting a permit, the applicant/permittee acknowledges and accepts full responsibility for the proper installation and maintenance of the subject tent or temporary structure. The applicant/permittee further acknowledges, understands, and agrees that the Township disclaims and bears no responsibility for the proper installation and maintenance of the subject tent or temporary structure or for the safety or security of same from and against any and all causes including, but not limited to, wear and tear, defective materials or workmanship, vandalism, fire, or weather, and the applicant/permittee agrees to indemnify and to hold the Township, and its elected and appointed officials, officers, and employees harmless against any claims, suits, liabilities, damages, expenses, or losses in connection therewith.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Please submit the following items for review:

1. A completed Commercial Building Permit Application
2. $30.00 Plan Review Fee
3. Five copies of a site plan indicating:
 - The placement and distance to the lot lines of each tent or canopy. Note: tents and canopies should be located a minimum of 16' away from the property lines.
 - The distance separating each tent or canopy from any structure.
 - The distance from each structure to any open-flame cooking apparatus. Note: Fire Code requires that any open flame cooking apparatus be a minimum of 20' away from any structure.
4. Flame retardant treatment documentation for each tent and/or canopy.
5. Manufacture specifications for recommended anchoring method.
6. Wind/snow load design calculations
7. Means of egress information:
 - Occupant load
 - Number and sizes of doors
 - Width of exterior stairs (if applicable)
 - Furniture placement and/or seating layout
